Bulgaria-Yugoslavia Sign Protocol

Bulgarian Foreign Trade Minister Ivan Nedev and Yugoslav Trade Secretary Muhamed Hadzic concluded their talks in Sofia on 7 September, with the signing of a protocol calling for greater economic cooperation between the two states (see Intelligencer, 7 Sept). The talks were held in a "spirit of frankness and mutual understanding," which in traditional communist jargon signifies that certain issues remain unresolved. One of these issues probably is Macedonia, a long-standing problem that has clouded relations between the two countries.
